

Our FAVOURITE books

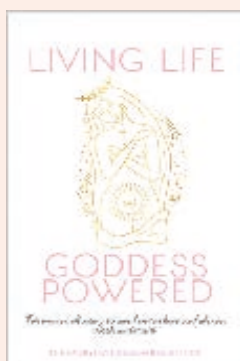

Lose yourself in one of our top reading picks this April

#2020Vision – Unbound Perspectives from a Year Like No Other by Nicola Humber

#2020VISION is a time capsule like no other.

Author, founder and literary spellcaster Nicola Humber believes many of us have connected with new or forgotten aspects of ourselves throughout the pandemic.

Now she invites you to experience 20 different authors and their unique and magical stories from the year 2020. Filled with learnings and heart-warming accounts, the book spreads hope and will open your eyes to new possibilities and perspectives. Mothers, singletons and business owners all contribute to a celebratory exploration of grief, transformation and change. £12, amazon.co.uk

Living Life Goddess Powered by Leanne McDonald

'When sleeping women wake, mountains move' was a proverb that inspired spiritual transformation coach Leanne McDonald's new book Living Life Goddess Powered. Twenty-five co-authors encourage us to live life aligned with our individual truths and the knowledge to reclaim and own our power. This book captures an abundance of wisdom and inspires, empowers and encourages us all to take action and live a life filled with more love, self-acceptance, trust and purpose. Get ready to step into your goddess power! £17.17, amazon.co.uk

Red Amaryllis by Denise E Jacobs

WWIII is looming and Denise Jacobs has long foreseen it through her extraordinary ability to see the past and present. Her gift even enabled her to win a decade-long legal battle against one of the world's largest financial institutions. The story comes with a warning: unless we demand that those with power change, Jacobs' foreseen troubles may become visible to us all. £14.99, redamaryllis.org

The Soul by Piers Morris

This book is an enchantingly educational and easy-to-read reference guide exploring the relationship between the soul and the human body. It includes research into the occupancy of the human body, soul development, spiritual advancing, the soul's relationship with death and the non-physical 'home' it resides in. A fantastic book for those starting their spiritual journey. £9.99, amazon.co.uk

My Journey As A Belly Dancer by Elizabeth Gordon

In a fantastic true story of fate, Elizabeth Gordon tells of the 'deja vu' she sensed whilst watching a belly dancer in Morocco. Her 'out of body' experience guided her from a solicitors in London to completing her karmic circle as a belly dancer where a top famous celebrity tracked her down. Sharing the challenges she faced besides the glitz and the glamour of the profession, this is a compelling story of trusting instinct, following your heart and dancing with fate. £10.99, amazon.co.uk

Get involved!

Got a new book you'd like to promote? Tell us about it! Email rosalind.moody@aceville.co.uk or shout out via the social media handles below.

ssmagazine

@soulspiritmag

@soulandspiritmag

soulandspiritmagazine@aceville.co.uk

Soul & Spirit Magazine, 25 Phoenix Court, Hawkins Road, Colchester, CO2 8JY